

Merv Bartholow Memorial Scholarship

Presented by Buckeye Lake for Tomorrow

Guidelines 2023-2024

Buckeye Lake for Tomorrow Inc. is organized exclusively for charitable and educational purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3), of the Internal Revenue Code.

The mission of Buckeye Lake for Tomorrow, Inc. is to facilitate and promote actions that will enhance quality of life through improved water quality for the benefit of recreation, agriculture, wildlife, and other users of the Buckeye Lake Watershed aquatic resources.

Our Vision is:

- to work with stakeholders who are committed to sustaining Buckeye Lake water resources for future generations to enjoy.
- to develop and implement a watershed action plan that results in improved water quality in the Buckeye Lake Watershed over the next ten years.
- to work with communities around Buckeye Lake to ensure a multijurisdictional plan is created to guide development in a lake-sustaining manner (no current guidelines exist).
- to develop a long-term volunteer water quality monitoring program and share results with the community.
- to inform the public about the steps they can take to help improve the water quality of Buckeye Lake and the Buckeye Lake Watershed.

Our Objectives are:

- to promote the reduction of nonpoint pollution from all potential sources that may include agricultural, commercial, residential and recreation.
- to develop and offer youth-adult educational opportunities regarding relevant watershed management topics.
- to foster cooperation between agriculture, commercial residential and recreational interests in order to enable coordinated action toward common goals.
- to assist area decision makers in the development and coordinated adoption of sound watershed management policies.
